

This issue is extraordinarily important to me since a free media and free press are integral tools to a fully functioning democracy.